BCG CAREERS MADE IN SWITZERLAND

Opt for Swissness when planning your career! Switzerland has a lot to offer. Not only in nature and culture, but also through characteristics like quality and innovation, which make it a great place not only to live, but also to work.

Are you studying at ESADE, IESE or IE in Spain and interested in a career in consulting? Then join us for this event in our Barcelona office and meet BCG Switzerland's recruiting partner, the recruiting team, and consultants from our Zurich and Geneva offices. Before heading out for a casual and relaxed dinner, we'll share with you what's special about BCG Switzerland and how you can build your personal career through flexible working models and mentorship while working in various industries at an international level. We'll give you insights into the working day of a consultant, the casework we do, and challenges we meet. Bring along your questions—we'll be happy to answer them and discuss the topics that are most important to you.

Interested? Apply online by uploading your CV:
on.bcg.com/madeinswitzerlandbarcelona

Application deadline: October 24, 2016

This event is open to German-speaking masters and MBA students from ESADE, IESE, and IE.

We look forward to meeting you!
